

The Carson Daily Appeal

CARSON CITY:

Sunday, April 20, 1913.

WE CONFESS to a very acute and gratifying sense of journalistic consequence and usefulness on the strength of observing the alacrity with which our suggestions are almost invariably acted on and carried out. The other day we made mention of the dangers which beset an unwary humanity at a certain public cistern. Forthwith some substantial plumbing was brought to the spot and the needed repairs were performed. Yesterday we blew our fog whistle to indicate a dangerous reef on the Rail cross walk, and lo! the right arm of the county was busy at work bright and early yesterday morning making whole the ruptured passage way. Thus it is that a timely suggestion from the infallible, watchful and Argus-eyed local creature induces the body politic to attend to the minutiae which concern its physical health.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The youngest child, a little girl, of Deputy County Assessor Thos. J. Tennant, died at an early hour yesterday morning after a brief illness. Mr. Tennant being absent in the northern end of the county on official business was sent for, and arrived on the stage about one hour after it had breathed its last. We can assure the grief-stricken parents that they have the sincere sympathy of a wide circle of friends and acquaintances in their sad affliction. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock p. m. to-day, from the residence of the family on South Spring street, a few doors above the Episcopal Church.—Eureka Sentinel April 17.

THE evident and attractive chipper and caroling of birds noticed by the wayfarer as he lingers and plays about the up-town Sazerac, where the gifted watchman makes time fly to the tune of the rattling dice box, is caused by a score or two of canaries purchased yesterday by Jimmy Dealy of a man who had just brought them from New York. We believe that James will dispose of the same, for coin, as a special personal favor to those who have the ready amalgam. Some of them are splendid singers.

THE ODD FELLOWS of Virginia City will dedicate their splendid new Hall on Friday evening next, the 25th instant with a ball, and through their thoughtful invitation committee we have received a printed permit to apply to the committee of arrangements and pay ten dollars for a ticket of admission thereto. For this distinguished manifestation of their politeness the said committee will accept our thanks. We shall be pleased to comply with this invitation if we can spare the time and the spelter.

A LITTLE daughter of Henry Caffel, the baker who is gone mad and is now in the Asylum at Stockton, died yesterday morning. She died from an abscess which resulted from an aggravated attack of scarlet fever. The little sufferer was one of the wards of the Masonic fraternity here and they cared for her with great constancy and tenderness. She was buried yesterday afternoon.

DISSOLVED.—It will be noticed by the reader of our new advertisements that the firm of Mason, Cheney & Co. has dissolved—Mr. Cheney retiring, and the concern being reconstructed under the name and style of Mason & Chamberlain. These gentlemen are merchants of means and experience and are enjoying, as they deserve, a fair share of the mercantile business of the place.

MINT.—The most exciting item imparted to us at the Mint yesterday was conveyed through that excellent and perennial medium of items, ex-Governor Slingerland who confided the fact to us that there were yesterday received at that busy public workshop 633 pounds of Belcher crude bullion; and that there would be shipped, last night, eight bars of Crown Point bullion—same going to London, by W. F. & Co.

VERY sultry weather yesterday, just the kind to start out the trusting buds of expectation and cause to circulate in joyful carelessness the juices of a tender and innocent growth, tempting the intrusion of the withering winds of disappointment and the cruel frosts of adversity. Thus it is the sweet mood of hope is freckled o'er with the dingy cast of apprehension and we chew the bitter cud of trouble.

NEW PUMP.—The V. & T. freight depot is to be supplied with a new force pump—to be set up on the southwest corner of that structure and be kept there in readiness for the extinguishing of vagrant fires and sparks from extraneous sources. A good thing, we reckon.

THE SUPREME COURT is adjourned, or has a recess, rather, until Monday—tomorrow—and it will probably meet then; but there will not be likely to be any business before Tuesday, when an important case will be argued.

REV. J. D. HAMMOND will preach at the Methodist Church to-day—morning and evening—at the usual hours.

SERVICES in the Episcopal Church at 11 a. m. and 7 1/2 p. m. Sunday School at 12 1/2 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

THE Virginia City Republican Primary Election for candidates for the various municipal offices is thus alluded to in last evening's Chronicle: As we go to press the Republican primary election is progressing quietly, about 500 votes having been polled up to 3 p. m. The following ticket is said to be ahead in all wards and its election is confidently predicted by those well posted: Mayor, George W. Hopkins; Assessor, James Walker; Treasurer, Charles H. Daley; Chief of Police, Ben. F. Luckey; Aldermen—First Ward, Joe Smith (present incumbent); Second Ward, W. F. Shepard; Third Ward, A. J. Tyrrell; Fourth Ward, J. D. Gray.

READ THIS—A NEW DEAL.—Frank Hall, who has taken charge of Theater Hall, informs the public that no more skating will be indulged in but that the floor of the hall will be put in good trim for dancing, and a social dance will be given every Friday evening under his management. Excellent music will be engaged for these dances, and the price of admission will be but fifty cents, so that all who desire to while away a few hours in that delightful amusement can indulge that pleasure. The hall is one of the best in the State, and with good music, and Frank for manager, a good time may always be anticipated. The first dance will take place next Friday, April 25, 1913.

At the Carson Theater, Monday evening, April 21st, Thomas J. Mason's Panorama of the great Chicago and Boston Fires will be exhibited—genuine paintings. This mammoth exhibition is accompanied by the Great Trail, the Illusionist, who will appear in his Bohemian Temple of Science. Admission, $1; children half-price.
